

Daisetz T. Suzuki

Kitaro Nishida

The Fourth Kanazawa University International Award in Commemoration of Daisetz T. Suzuki and Kitaro Nishida

We are now accepting nominations for "The 4th Kanazawa University International Award in commemoration of Daisetz T. Suzuki and Kitaro Nishida".

The International Award is established in honor of Daisetz T. Suzuki (1870-1966) and Kitaro Nishida (1870-1945), both of whom are associated with Kanazawa University, and is intended to honor researchers who have made outstanding international achievements in the fields of philosophy, thought, and religion. The purpose of this award is to promote the further development of research in these fields and to provide a significant academic stimulus to young researchers who will lead the next generation.

Click here for more information about the Kanazawa University International Award "Kanazawa University International Award in commemoration of Daisetz T. Suzuki and Kitaro Nishida Web site"
<https://www.kanazawa-u.ac.jp/university/corporation/kokusaishou>

This award was established with funds from the donation of Dr. Mitsuru Usui (1964 Kanazawa University School of Medicine graduate).

Nomination Guidelines for the Fourth Kanazawa University International Award in Commemoration of Daisetz T. Suzuki and Kitaro Nishida

Academic areas	Philosophy, thought and religion
Content of the award	Award certificate and award plaque, accompanied by prize money of five million
Number of winner	One
Eligible nominee	Scholars or researchers who have made internationally distinguished achievements in the realm of philosophy, thought and religion
Nomination period	Friday, July 1, 2022 - Thursday, December 15, 2022
Schedule for selection and the award ceremony	(1) Selection of award winner: early March, 2023 (2) Award ceremony: Thursday, June 8, 2023 [Note] The awardee should attend the award ceremony and deliver a memorial lecture.
Required documents (by recommendation only)	(1) Requisite documents: Letter of nomination [including statement of reasons] (in the prescribed form), personal resume, list of achievements (2) Place of submission: KUI Award Executive Office (by post or e-mail)
Selection procedures	(1) The KUI Award Selection Panel (the "Panel") shall be established and the finalists shall be decided by consensus of the Panel. (2) Based on the selection by the Panel, the KUI Award Committee shall decide the award winner.
Members of the KUI Award Committee	Takashi Wada, President, Kanazawa University Mitsuru Usui, Director, Juzen Memorial Hospital (Medical Corporation Meitokukai) Tatsuhiko Shiokawa, Vice President/Trustee/Secretary General, Kanazawa University Tamotsu Yamade, Chairman, Ishikawa Federation of Small Business Associations; Former Mayor of Kanazawa Makio Takemura, Former President, Toyo University Hiroshi Yamamoto, President, Komatsu University Kaname Miura, Professor, Faculty of Human Sciences, Institute of Human and Social Sciences, Kanazawa University Masahide Mori, Professor, Faculty of Human Sciences, Institute of Human and Social Sciences, Kanazawa University
For submission and inquiries	KUI Award Executive Office (Kanazawa University General Affairs Department) Address: Kakuma-machi, Kanazawa, Ishikawa 920-1192, Japan E-mail: award@adm.kanazawa-u.ac.jp Telephone: 076-264-5111 Facsimile: 076-234-4010

Nomination Guidelines for the Fourth Kanazawa University International Award in Commemoration of Daisetz T. Suzuki and Kitaro Nishida

Daisetz T. Suzuki and Kitaro Nishida, both graduates of Kanazawa University (formerly known as the Fourth High School), left behind world-class achievements in the realm of philosophy, thought and religion. In tribute to these two great scholars, the Kanazawa University International Award (the “KUI Award”) has been founded to honor scholars or researchers making internationally outstanding achievements in the realm of philosophy, thought and religion. The “KUI Award” aims to facilitate international cooperation and the further advancement of academic research in the world through Kanazawa University as a global academic and research institution. The Kanazawa University International Award Committee (the “KUI Award Committee” or “Committee”) is therefore seeking nominees for the Fourth KUI Award as follows.

1. Academic areas: Philosophy, thought and religion
2. Content of the award: Award certificate and award plaque, accompanied by prize money of five million yen
3. Number of winners: One
4. Eligible nominees: Scholars or researchers who have made internationally distinguished achievements in the realm of philosophy, thought and religion
5. Nomination period: Friday, July 1, 2022 - Thursday, December 15, 2022
6. Schedule for selection and the award ceremony
 - (1) Selection of award winner: early March 2023
 - (2) Award ceremony: Thursday, June 8, 2023

[Note] The awardee should attend the award ceremony and deliver a memorial lecture.
7. Required documents (by recommendation only)
 - (1) Requisite documents: Letter of nomination [include statement of reasons] (in the prescribed form), personal resume, list of achievements
 - (2) Place of submission: KUI Award Executive Office (by post or e-mail)

8. Selection procedures

- (1) The KUI Award Selection Panel (the "Panel") shall be established and the finalists shall be decided by consensus of the Panel.
- (2) Based on the selection by the Panel, the KUI Award Committee shall decide the award winner.

9. Members of the KUI Award Committee

Takashi Wada, President, Kanazawa University

Mitsuru Usui, Director, Juzen Memorial Hospital (Medical Corporation Meitokukai)

Tatsuhiko Shiokawa, Vice President/Trustee/Secretary General, Kanazawa University

Tamotsu Yamade, Chairman, Ishikawa Federation of Small Business Associations;

Former Mayor of Kanazawa

Makio Takemura, Former President, Toyo University

Hiroshi Yamamoto, President, Komatsu University

Kaname Miura, Professor, Faculty of Human Sciences, Institute of Human and Social Sciences, Kanazawa University

Masahide Mori, Professor, Faculty of Human Sciences, Institute of Human and Social Sciences, Kanazawa University

10. Sending address and Contact

KUI Award Executive Office (Kanazawa University General Affairs Department)

Address: Kakuma-machi, Kanazawa, Ishikawa 920-1192, Japan

E-mail: award@adm.kanazawa-u.ac.jp

Telephone: 076-264-5111

Facsimile: 076-234-4010

Form

MMMM DD, YYYY

To: Chairperson of KUI Award Committee

Nomination of Candidate for the 4th Kanazawa University International Award

I would like to recommend the following individual as the one worthy of the Kanazawa University International Award. Details are provided in the other requisite documents (no particular format) enclosed.

Name:

Gender:

Date of birth:

Nationality:

Organization:

Title or position:

_____ (Recommenders Signature)

Note: Please attach English translation, when you submit requisite documents (Letter of nomination, reasons record, personal resume, list of achievements).